

WASHINGTON CRITIC

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For to-day cloudy weather and rain with continued wind, northward winds, very hazy.

For Wednesday continued east northward winds and local rains, followed by fair weather, are indicated for the Middle Atlantic States.

Theatricom Headings.

Theatre openings, September 20, 8 a.m., 601 1/2 a.m., 6 p.m., 11 a.m., 5 p.m., September 21. Mean temperature, 67° 4°; maximum, 69° 7°; minimum, 59° 5° mean relative humidity, 84° 8°.

ARRANGEMENTS.

ALBANY—"Clio,"—"Black Crook," at Forte's—"Hazel Kirke" at Herzog's—Other Attractions.

Albany's Grand Opera House was almost crowded last night and Bartley Campbell was a pleased spectator from one of the boxes of a brilliant production and an enthusiastic reception of the latest of his spectacular plays. "Clio" has the defects and objectionable features of plays in which special effects are the dominant element, but it has the attraction that any of the old timers will go in. Dick Morgan says that he has given up rowing forever. Fisher, Littlell and Smithson are all three hard workers. The latter had his performance to look forward to, but the former two were too high. It is understood that McKinney has joined Smithson's single-player party. "Hazel Kirke" is a much sacrifice to the spectacular effects, but what there is of plot and playing, sentiment and sensation, is all good. The play is magnificently mounted. Scene, costumes, properties, stage effects, lighting, everything is well arranged, brilliant and artistic. "Clio" is well adapted to a popular taste that justifies and entertains class on the river. Several world-beaters of Kearny have advised him not to enter this race, as he had "everything to live for." Kearny has given up his most nonsensical efforts to give him Kearny's chief characteristic heretofore in sealing has been life itself. He had great confidence in himself and has always left his name to the public. This time he has given Kearny the name of being one of the pluckiest scoundrels anywhere. Whenever one has been mentioned in a crowd seems one has always had something to live for.

It was an account of this that the Holtzman race was gotten up for Kearny's especial benefit. The distance was made especially for him, at three-quarters of a mile, and no one can take it away from him.

It is said that his friends have planned it so that he will not enter, because he has "everything to lose and nothing to gain."

What has he to lose? In the first act Miss Martine interpolated the popular "La Bohème," which was demanded a second time, and the audience responded.

"Clio" was a decided hit. The acting throughout was of the mode-dramatic order usual in spectacular performances. Material will be given to several critics in the morning.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

United States Electric Light Company yesterday began laying their wires underground on the Avenue.

The Maryland Democratic Association held a meeting yesterday at the hall of the new national headquarters elected.

A committee was appointed to look after the registration of voters and defraying their expenses to the national convention.

Colonel Smith Thompson, C. E. Butcher of Duglin and Charles C. Lancaster of the District bar addressed that association.

In the Police Court.

Lulu Nash, a young girl, and rather leading white girls, mostly, were a prisoner in the dock at the Police Court this morning on a charge of stealing some silverware from Gassendium's restaurant at Sixth street and the Avenue. She pleaded guilty and her attorney stated that she took the property while under the influence of liquor. The court adjourned until noon to have a slight examination of the requirements of her note.

THE MURDER—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

Probably four thousand people assembled to witness the game yesterday afternoon at the Union Square armory. With the exception of Powell, Fulmer and Hoover, the base running of the Nationals was not nearly up to the mark. Barely half of the games were won, and as holders and base runners, they lay away over any line that has been here. The series between them and the winners of the League pennant, to be played in Philadelphia between the 1st and 2nd of October, will be watched with great interest.

Probably four thousand people assembled to witness the game yesterday afternoon at the Union Square armory. With the exception of Powell, Fulmer and Hoover, the base running of the Nationals was not nearly up to the mark. Barely half of the games were won, and as holders and base runners, they lay away over any line that has been here. The series between them and the winners of the League pennant, to be played in Philadelphia between the 1st and 2nd of October, will be watched with great interest.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."

The Dime Museum on Pennsylvania avenue was filled by an enthusiastic audience last evening on the opening of the thrilling drama "The Planter's Child" by the Leono Brothers and their famous acting days. Lton and his wife, Mrs. Lton, and their daughter, "Dolly" Dutton, displayed her qualities of grace and beauty and was the recipient of much applause during the performance. Miss Little Italy was a decided disappointment as "Hazel Kirke." Her voice was not strong and she did not have it to do justice to the demands of the rôle.

THE DIME MUSEUM—"PLANTER'S CHILD."</p